

PROTECTION OF PERSONAL INFORMATION CONSENT FORM

The Pestalozzi Trust is a public benefit organisation established in 1998 to provide support and advocacy services to protect the rights and freedoms of families to educate their children according to their own religious and/or philosophical persuasions, pedagogical convictions, and cultural traditions.

The Trust shall use any personal and special personal information provided solely to –

- a. According to its sole judgement, and its discretion, but where appropriate in consultation with the institution the learner attends and other parties selected by the Trust, assist the members in discussions and negotiations with officials or institutions of the State, or other parties where appropriate, where any of the abovementioned rights and freedoms are threatened;
- b. Provide members whose rights and freedoms are threatened by actions of the State or its officials with advice by lawyers and/or other experts as needed, to resolve and limit the dispute or potential dispute before it escalates to litigation; and
- c. To communicate with members, where appropriate, regarding any information that will affect the education of the learner and/or membership of the Trust.
